Held For Trial

Friday last Mr Geo. Campbell and George Hargrave went to Lethbridge to attend the hearing of Max Hoffman whom alleged by R. C. M. P. to have in his possession the goods stolen from Mr. Campbell's store.

John Delmark, Clerk in Hoffman's store gave evidence that the goods were delivered to the store on Sunday with no invoice. He stated that the cost and price marks on the goods were not those used at that store.

Goods exhibited were gloves, windbreakers, overalls, leather jackets, etc.

Hoffman was remanded for trial on bail of $5,000.

New Industry

Champion has a new industry the only one of its kind in Alberta and only one other in western Canada. Jim and Joe McNaughton of Blusom District have begun operation of a tow plant which manufactures packing for Chesterfields, mattresses etc.

The only raw material required is flax straw which is procured from the surrounding country, mainly from south and east of Lomond.

The machine, which was shipped from Ontario some time previous to the New Year, is a series of intermeshed steel rollers which crush the flax straw. It is then worked over shakers removing the chaff. The fibre is then baled in eighty pound bales for shipping. The machine is powered with a two horse engine.

The by product of this industry is an excellent feed for stock as the chaff and whatever grain is left in the straw when threshed is still to be utilized.

The main market for this product is Lethbridge and Calgary although they hope to establish connections in Edmonton and other centres of population where there is a market.

The boys are very optimistic about their venture and are sure of establishing a paying business.

Curling To Start

Credit is to be given to the two local boys who have taken over the Curling rink for this season Jimmy Anderson Kenneth McMahon who started work this week in flooding and preparing the rinks.

At the present time they have six rinks organized and hope to get more as the season goes on. Ladies and Junior rinks will also be formed and we understand that the boys are hard at work on these now.

In the very near future they hope to hold a bonspiel to create local interest in the game.

The fees have been set at the low level of $3.00 per person and your co operation is asked to make this venture a success so if you wish to play please get in touch with the above mentioned boys. Support your local sports.

Change In Lethbridge School Division

Over the signature of Hon William Aberhart, minister of education, in the Alberta Gazette, it is announced that it appears advisable in the interests of education to transfer Bowville School District No. 1528 and Centre Ridge School District No. 3856 from Subdivision No 1 of Lethbridge School Division, No. 7 to Subdivision No 3 of the same division.

LOCALS

Mr and Mrs Harry McNaughton were Greyhound passengers to Spokane Wash where they will visit their daughter and old friends.

Remember the first home game of the Little Bow Hockey Club will be on Wed 17. We will be seeing you at the game.

Mr and Mrs J W V Christensen and family have returned from Oregon where they have been visiting with relatives over the Christmas holidays.

Canada Aids Allies

Ottawa's announcement that preparations are under way for Canada's first war loan, now scheduled to make its appearance during the first quarter of 1940 is good news inasmuch as it will provide the rank and file of Canadians with an opportunity to make their first direct contribution to Canada's War effort. The backbone of Canada's participation in this war will be financial because of the vast amount of foodstuffs, material and military supplies that will be required from this country. True there is much of these materials will be paid for by the Allies, but some of the British purchases in this country will have to be financed by Canada, and Canada's own program will be extensive. It seems probable that at least 40 percent of the national income will be required in the next year to meet the cost of war and other expenditures of all governments in Canada and to finance the British purchases here.

Canada has come a long way since the last war in developing a fiscal system of equality in citizenship and its attendant responsibilities. As announced in the first war budget, this war, in so far as Canada is concerned will be financed as far as practicable on a pay as you go basis, and paid for by all on the general basis of ability to pay. It would be impossible to tax for the entire cost of swinging the program into action without tending to hamper initiative, lessen efficiency and retard the expansion of production and national income. Tax revenues, therefore, must be supplemented through borrowing by means of domestic bond floatations.

It may too be taken for granted that there will be no tax free bonds in this war, that will gravitate to a few holders and enable them to minimize their income taxes. Nor will there be any duplication of the abnormal profits from war materials witnessed during the last war. The safeguard against this is the Excess Profits Tax, enacted at the special war session of the Dominion Legislature.

Pay as You Go Policy

Non political Effort to secure funds

Canadians from coast to coast will soon be asked to subscribe to the war loan which is being floated to meet Canada's war expenditures and weekly news papers editors are being asked to co-operate in the effort. It is a non political proposition the national committee having a wide representation composed of outstanding men, who know the needs of the country.

In concert with the policies pursued by Britain and France Canada is seeking to avoid the financial and economic pitfalls which marked the last war; by cautious policy, now she seeks to avoid erratic and ruinous price movements during the war and complexities afterward. It seems well recognized that the real material cost of war is paid in goods and services while the war is on. The monetary cost of those goods and services can be provided only out of the national income. The national income is, of course, the sum total of the dollar value of the goods and services produced. As far as it is reasonable, these monetary costs will be provided out of taxation. That part of the financial cost which taxation cannot possibly provide can only be secured by rational borrowing — and the borrowing, just like the general cost of the war, should be spread as possible over the whole population. This war — much more so than any war in history — is being fought on the economic front as well as the military front. sound principles demand a virtual pay as you go policy.

Can. First War Loan

In preparation for Canada's first war loan effort of the New World War, a national Subscription Committee are in the process of formation across Canada and will be organized in time for the initial effort on the economic war front.

The First War Loan will provide Canadians, as a whole with their first opportunity to participate in Canada's war effort. To enable everyone to subscribe, it is indicated that bonds will have denominations as low as $50 dollars each for smaller subscriptions.

In announcing the acceptance by Mr Dunning of the chairmanship of the National Subscription committee, Mr Ralston said "Canada is indeed fortunate that Mr Dunning has agreed to undertake this important task. His experience as minister of Finance and also in connection with the Victory Loan campaigns during the last war make him the ideal man for the job."

A Call TO SERVICE on the Economic Front

"Materials and money count for so much in this war that a resolute, loyal and enthusiastic economic front line may be the determining factor."

Mr. Ralston
MINISTER OF FINANCE.

To your restless question "When can I help win this war?" — the answer is NOW. On Monday next, the Government of the Dominion of Canada will offer the First War Loan. The purpose of this Loan is to provide money to carry on the war, not only on the battlefields, but all along the Economic Front.

Let us explain what the Economic Front means. It means a war in which the entire natural, industrial and financial resources of the country are used to defeat the enemy. It means a "total war" in which every citizen takes a part, in which his personal resources must support those of the Nation.

In such a war, one of the chief weapons is money. Where is this money to come from? There is only one answer. It must come — and come voluntarily — from the savings of our people. The difference between us and the Germans is that we, of our own free will, lend our money — it is not ruthlessly taken away.

This is your opportunity to do your part in this struggle against Hitlerism. The eyes of the world are upon you, upon Canada, one of the strongest members of the British Commonwealth. Canadians must show that their strength, their courage and their resources are all in this fight against "brute force, bad faith, injustice, aggression and persecution."

The news of the success of this Loan must go ringing round the world.

Be ready to buy War Loan Bonds. They will have the proven safety and salability of Dominion of Canada obligations. Any Investment Dealer or Chartered Bank will take your subscription. The quicker the economic war is won, the greater will be the saving of human lives . . . the swifter the collapse of the enemy.
